BOMA Canada- New - Manager, Environmental Practices & Initiatives

Toronto, ON – Building Owners & Managers Association (BOMA) of Canada

Diana Osler Zortea, President and Chief Staff Officer of the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of Canada, is pleased to announce the appointment of Nada Sutic as Manager, Environmental Practices & Initiatives, effective January 1, 2009.

Nada started with BOMA Toronto, where she built on BOMA Canada's environmental program to increase the number of certifications at the local level and raise the profile of the program. As Manager of Green Initiatives with BOMA Toronto, she also helped facilitate the progress of the national program through the integration and implementation of BOMA Canada's BOMA BEST (Building Environmental Standards) certification program (formerly Go Green).

As Manager of BOMA Canada's Environmental Practices & Initiatives, Nada will manage the environmental sustainability initiatives of the national association including development of additional BOMA BEST assessment modules, best practices programs, communications and stakeholder liaison for BOMA Canada's environmental practices and initiatives

Nada brings a diverse array of environmental experience to BOMA and the commercial real estate sector. She has worked as a consultant to industrial, commercial and institutional properties, an environmental educator delivering community based programs, and as an ISO 14001 consultant to the auto parts sector. Nada holds a Bachelor of Environmental Studies from the University of Waterloo, and a certificate in Environmental Management and Assessment.
