

What will be inside the Canadian Museum for Human Rights?

CMHR exhibits and construction timelines unveiled at BOMA Manitoba luncheon

(Wednesday, February 13 2013 – WINNIPEG, MB) Today, commercial real estate and property management professionals will be getting an inside peek at the exhibits and construction timelines of the Canadian Museum for Human Rights.

CMHR's Director of Communications, Angela Cassie, will be addressing the guests of the Building Owners and Managers Association of Manitoba's February luncheon.

"We've seen presentations related to museum design and construction, and so we're thrilled to now be getting a sneak preview inside the 'finished' building," says Tom Thiessen, Executive Director of BOMA Manitoba. "And our members are also eager to learn about timelines for the project's completion."

Please join us for our luncheon:

Date: Wednesday, February 13, 2013

Who:

- Angela Cassie, Director of Communications, Canadian Museum for Human Rights
- BOMA Manitoba Representatives

Luncheon Location: Winnipeg Convention Centre, 375 York Avenue

Time: 12:00 – 1:30 p.m. – Luncheon

Interviews will be permitted after 1:30 p.m.

About BOMA Manitoba:

The Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of Manitoba actively assists real estate developers and operators of commercial office space to become more expert, professional, and accomplished in their fields, as well as to create better tenant environments and more stable investments for the owners.
