

MEDIA ADVISORY
For Immediate Release

Vision for WPS and Downtown Safety Addressed

Chief of Police, Devon Clunis, Speaks at
Commercial Real Estate Industry Luncheon

(Wednesday, April 10, 2013 – WINNIPEG, MB) Winnipeg's Chief of Police, Devon Clunis, will be sharing his insights and vision for the Winnipeg Police Service at the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) luncheon today.

His presentation will highlight initiatives to enhance downtown safety, and making Winnipeg a safer city in which to live and work. This is the first time Clunis will be speaking to members of the commercial real estate industry in Manitoba.

"Since his appointment as our newest Chief of Police, we've been waiting for Chief Clunis' insights on the new direction of the WPS, which affect our industry and the city as a whole," says Tom Thiessen, Executive Director, BOMA Manitoba. "Our members are excited to meet and hear from Chief Devon Clunis."

Please join us for today's luncheon:

Date: Wednesday, April 10, 2013

Who:

- Chief of Police, Devon Clunis
- BOMA Manitoba Representatives

Luncheon Location: Delta Winnipeg, 350 St. Mary Avenue

Time:

- 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. Lunch and Speaker Presentation
- Devon Clunis presents at approximately 12:50 p.m.
- Interviews will be permitted after 1:30 p.m.

About BOMA Manitoba

The Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of Manitoba actively assists real estate developers and operators of commercial office space to become more expert, professional, and accomplished in their fields, as well as to create better tenant environments and more stable investments for the owners