

MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR MEMBERSHIP

BOMA Member Since 2008

Member spotlight: Janet Cranston

Director of Support Services Reh-fit Centre

“The opportunity to meet other professionals in the city and network makes BOMA a valuable organization to be part of. I am fortunate to work in a state of the art facility that continues to improve as I learn more from the many contacts I have made.”

For over 25 years Janet Cranston has been working in the Health & Fitness industry, and is the Director of Support Services at the Reh-Fit Centre. She currently oversees building operations, membership, marketing and communication and has been a BOMA member since 2008.

Janet values her BOMA membership for helping the Reh-Fit Centre reach Level 1 BOMA BEST certification, networking opportunities and adding further credibility to their organization.

She says that being a member of BOMA has also helped her to grow personally in her knowledge of building operations as well as allowed her to make some great contacts in the industry.

Janet encourages others to get involved and embrace what BOMA has to offer!
